JULY 2015

A Message From The Commanding Officer...

Deputy Inspector James Grant

Greetings to our wonderful Upper East Side Community! Hope everyone is enjoying their summer so far, can you believe we are half way through the year already?!

In the month of June we had many community events that took full advantage of the great weather, including the Puerto Rican Day Parade down Fifth Avenue, which went off without a hitch and with a amazing display of Puerto Rican Pride. Many also enjoyed a car-free evening on Fifth Avenue for Museum Mile's 37th annual festival and there is no shortage of events planned for the upcoming months. To stay on top of everything happening on the #UpperEastSide #UES connect with us on Twitter @NYPD19Pct so you're not left out!

Many Upper East Siders also enjoyed the opening day of John Jay Park Pool, which is staffed by 19th Precinct Officers to ensure the safety of all those enjoying the water. While we are there to ensure your safety, we need your help protecting your valuables. If you plan to enjoy the pool this summer you must bring your own sturdy combination lock and only bring essentials. Leave valuables such as electronic devices, jewelry, large sums of money and credit cards at home. Also please don't leave anything unattended, which is a great tip whether you are at the pool or not. One of the top crimes in the 19th Precinct is the theft of unattended property, it only takes one second for your property to go missing; please pay close attention to your belongings when you are out shopping, dining or enjoying New York City.

Lastly, we wish everyone a very Happy and safe 4th of July! Remember fireworks are dangerous and illegal, please enjoy the celebration responsibly.

Until next month, be well and be safe,

James Grant
Commanding Officer

Rental Listing Scam.

If it sounds too good to be true – it probably is.

HOW DOES THE SCAM WORK?

A person portrays themselves to be a Real Estate agent and collects payment from an apartment seeker, without owning the listing or premise. The transaction can occur in person, by phone or email with original contact being made through online posting on third party websites, such as Craigslist. When apartment hunting, keep these helpful tips in mind.

Listing

The "Agent" will put an actual apartment that is available for rent, without owning the listing or knowing the owner/landlord and placing a classified ad on a third party website.

Contact

Contact is made via email or phone conversation.

Payment

The "Agent" will request a payment Western Union, Money Gram or Green Dot Money Pak prior to meeting or viewing apartment/premise.

Delivery

The "Agent" will claim he/she is unable to meet due to being out of the area, state or country, however, he/she has arranged for keys to be delivered to you. Upon receiving payment, the fraudulent party will delivery keys (false set) for apartment/premise at an agreed upon neutral location.

Theft

The "Agent" will ask for you to submit an application with personal information listed, prior to viewing the apartment which puts you at high risk for identity theft.

Report It.

Immediately report a theft or suspicious activity to the NYPD by calling 911.

Did you know ATM skimming devices are placed over credit card readers undetectable to customers?

A hidden camera is also used to record customers entering their PIN.

Inspect the ATM prior to use and be sure to block the keypad when entering PIN.
